

DAVID V. BREWINGTON
August 2007

Department of Sociology
Tarbuton Hall
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

656 Wendan Drive
Decatur, GA 30033
david.brewington@emory.edu
678.999.7609

EDUCATION

2002 - current

Ph.D. program, Department of Sociology, Emory University

Ph.D. expected May 2008.

Qualifying Examinations: Culture; Global Civil Society.

Dissertation: Organizing Religious Liberty in the Long Twentieth Century, 1893 – 2006.

Committee: Frank J. Lechner (chair), John Boli, Timothy Dowd, & Steven M. Tipton.

1996

B.A., University of California, Davis, *summa cum laude

RESEARCH & TEACHING INTERESTS

Religion & Globalization
Human Rights
Theory
Global Analysis
Cultural Sociology
Social Movements
Organizations

AWARDS, HONORS, & FELLOWSHIPS

Aug 2007 – Jul 2008

Research Partner Fellowship

Scholarly Inquiry & Research at Emory University.

Aug 2007

Graduate Fellowship

Office of University-Community Partnerships at Emory University – declined.

Aug 2007

Woodruff Library Graduate Fellowship

Woodruff Library at Emory University – declined.

Sept 2002 – Aug 2007

George W. Woodruff Fellowship for Graduate Study

Department of Sociology, Emory University

PUBLICATIONS

Forthcoming October 2007 – “Religious Organizations.” With John Boli. in Globalization, Religion & Culture, edited by Peter Beyer & Lori Beaman. Leiden, Netherlands: Brill Academic Publishers.

Under Review – “We’ve Always had Human Rights”: Religious Movements & Discursive Change in the Global Human Rights Regime. Review of Religious Research.

Technical – “Survey of Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Analysis.” Commissioned by the American Academy of Religion. See www.aarweb.org/department/census/undergraduate/default.asp.

In progress – “Organizing Human Rights: the Case of Religious Liberty.”

In progress – “The International Human Rights Regime: Process, Sequence, and Change.”

In progress – “Religious Liberty at the Nexus of Human Rights and Religion.”

PROFESSIONAL MEETINGS, SYMPOSIA & COLLOQUIA

- Nov 2007 “Religious Organizations.” Society for the Scientific Study of Religion annual meeting special session organized for authors of the forthcoming volume, Globalization, Religion & Culture, edited by Peter Beyer & Lori Beaman, Tampa Bay, FL.
- Aug 2007 “Religious International Nongovernmental Organizations.” American Sociological Association annual meeting, New York, NY.
- Jun 2007 Colloquium on Human Rights and Sociological Institutionalism, Harvard Law School.
- Aug 2006 “‘We’ve Always had Human Rights’: Religious Movements & Discursive Change in the Global Human Rights Regime.” Association for Sociology of Religion annual meeting, Montreal, Quebec.
- Feb 2006 “Globalization Roundtables.” Discussant at Southeastern Undergraduate Sociology Symposium, Emory University.
- Nov 2005 “Tips & Tricks for Organizing Your Data.” Department of Sociology, Emory University.
- Aug 2005 “Organizing Human Rights: the Case of Religious Liberty.” American Sociological Association annual meeting, Philadelphia, PA.
- April 2005 “Late to the Party: Religious Liberty Organizing.” Southern Sociological Society annual meeting, Charlotte, NC.
- April 2005 “Organizing Human Rights: the Case of Religious Liberty.” Department of Sociology, Emory University.

Oct 2003 “Survey of Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Analysis.” American Academy of Religion Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Conference, Atlanta GA.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

Aug 2007 – current Research Partner Fellow, Scholarly Inquiry & Research at Emory Program development & mentoring of undergraduate students in the SIRE Research Partner Program.

Sept 2006 – current Research Consultant, American Academy of Religion, Atlanta. Data management, presentation, & statistical analysis of Census of Religion & Theology Programs, Wave II data.

Jan 2004 – May 2004 Research Assistant (with Frank Lechner) Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta. Conducted basic research on forms of global religious liberty.

May 2003 – Feb 2004 Research Consultant, American Academy of Religion, Atlanta Data management, presentation, & statistical analysis of Census of Religion & Theology Programs Wave I data.

Sept 2002 – May 2003 Research Assistant (with John Boli) Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta Collected data on Top 20 sociology departments.

Nov 2001 – Aug 2002 Research Associate, Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management, University of San Francisco. Redesigned internet course syllabus & case study database/library using MS Access, ColdFusion, & HTML. Gathered interview data for process & outcome evaluation research for Food Bank philanthropy project. Generated client-requested datasets from California Nonprofit Database in SPSS, MS Access, & MS Excel.

Jan 1996 – Jun 1996 Undergraduate Research Fellow (with John R. Hall) Institute of Governmental Affairs, University of California, Davis. Collected media archive on violent religious sects.

ADDITIONAL RESEARCH TRAINING

May 2004 “Qualitative Data Analysis Software,” workshop by Eben Weitzman, Emory University.

Dec 2006 “Sequence Analysis: An Introduction,” seminar by Ivano Bison at Emory University.

RELEVANT RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Feb 2001 – Sept 2001 System Manager II, Satmetrix Systems, Inc., Mountain View, CA Designed & implemented complex on-line customer experience surveying & reporting systems using proprietary XML-based computer language & HTML, PERL, & SQL. Managed all technical & methodological areas for multiple accounts & served as principal client contact.

June 2000 – Feb 2001

System Manager I, Satmetrix Systems, Inc., Mountain View, CA
Learned & utilized complex proprietary computer language & system architecture in implementing customer experience surveying & reporting systems.

Sept 1998 – July 1999

Project Analyst, Digital Generation Systems, San Francisco
Managed Quarterly Customer Satisfaction Survey Program. Developed, administered, tabulated, & reported survey results. Advocated measures on how to best improve customer satisfaction through detailed reports & presentations to Executive Staff. Assisted in design & administration of marketing surveys.

TEACHING

Jan 2006 – May 2006

Instructor, Global Change
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta.

Sept 2005 – Dec 2005

Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Development of Sociological Theory, Sociology 457.

Jan 2004 – May 2004

Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Global Change, Sociology 266.

Sept 2003 – Dec 2003

Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Development of Sociological Theory, Sociology 457.

Sept 2002 – May 2003

Teaching Assistant (with John Boli)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Freshman Seminar – Making Sense of Globalization, Sociology 190.

PEDAGOGICAL TRAINING

Fall 2004

Teaching Sociology, Sociology 767
Emory University, Department of Sociology, four-hour credit course.

Summer 2003

TATTO Training Course
The Graduate School of Arts & Sciences four-day intensive training course, Emory University.

INVITED LECTURES

July 2005

“Religion – Ritual or Belief?” in Introduction to Sociology

June 2005	“Religion – Ritual or Belief?” in Introduction to Sociology
Nov 2004	“The Protestant Ethic & the Spirit of Capitalism” in Development of Sociological Theory
Nov 2004	“Global Civil Society & Development” in World Inequality &amp; Underdevelopment
Nov 2003	“The Protestant Ethic & the Spirit of Capitalism” in Development of Sociological Theory
April 2003	“Global Fundamentalism” in Making Sense of Globalization

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Sept 2003 – current	Webmaster Department of Sociology, Emory University
Feb 2006	Faculty Advisor, Co-organizer, &amp; Discussant Globalization Roundtables, Southeastern Undergraduate Sociology Symposium, Emory University. Faculty advisor to Wiatta Thomas, Barbara Altimus, Sheena Sood, Lindsay Weiss, Gan Su, & Melanie Davis.
Sept 2004 – Aug 2006	Graduate student representative Graduate Program Committee, Department of Sociology, Emory University
Sept 2003 – May 2004	Co-coordinator Graduate Student Mentor Program, Department of Sociology, Emory University
Sept 2003 – May 2004	Mentor Graduate Student Mentor Program, Department of Sociology, Emory University
Jan 2003 – Feb 2003	Committee Member Graduate Recruitment Committee, Department of Sociology, Emory University

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Sociological Association
 Association for the Sociology of Religion
 Society for the Scientific Study of Religion
 Religious Research Association
 Southern Sociological Society