EXECUTIVE/ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Director, Senior Lecturer and Fellow, Emory University September 2005-present

Founding Director of Emory Development Initiative (EDI), which offers internships and courses for students interested in development, sponsors fieldtrips and student projects in low income countries; Senior Lecturer in sociology, core faculty in African Studies and adjunct faculty in the Dept. of Middle East and South Asian Studies; Fellow of the Lillian Carter Center for International Nursing.

Assistant to the Provost, Office of the Provost, Visiting Senior Lecturer, Interim Director of the Center for the Study of Public Scholarship (CSPS), Emory University August 2003-September 2006

Emory's liaison with The Carter Center for development opportunities within the international arena, including various initiatives having to do with religion and conflict, economic development in low income countries, and within the University for support of a variety of international programs, especially in the Gulf and Middle East, Europe and parts of Africa and South Asia. Directed programs in CSPS when directors were on sabbatical.

Member of Dutch Parliament 1994-2002

Portfolio included Foreign Affairs, Technology, Interior Affairs, Education, Welfare and Health. As a Member of Parliament (MP) for the Liberal Party (VVD), I also served as a delegate and: Member of the Assembly of the Council of Europe (CoE)

The CoE meets several times a year in Strasbourg. It is a large organization involving dozens of countries from around the world and plays a major role in political bargaining with nations particularly on human rights issues. The Assembly scrutinizes the decisions of the Council of Ministers. I served on its Committee on Culture, Science and Education, and Committee on Agriculture & Environment, as well as the North-South Institute, which aims to bring aid from Europe to Africa and Asia. I have also served as rapporteur for a number of CoE policy documents.

Member of the Assembly of the West European Union (WEU)

The WEU met regularly in Paris to conduct parliamentary scrutiny for decisions made by European countries and associate member countries such as Turkey and Ukraine in the area of defence and security. I served on the Political Committee, which makes strategic decisions, as well as the Committee on Aerospace, Administration & Budget.
