

DAVID V. BREWINGTON
November 2007

Department of Sociology
Tarbuton Hall
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

656 Wendan Drive
Decatur, GA 30033
david.brewington@emory.edu
678.999.7609

EDUCATION

- 2002 - current Ph.D. program, Department of Sociology, Emory University
Ph.D. expected May 2008.
Qualifying Examinations: Culture; Global Civil Society.
Dissertation: The Nexus of Human Rights and Religion: Organizing
Global Religious Liberty in the Long Twentieth Century, 1893 – 2006.
Committee: Frank J. Lechner (chair), John Boli, Timothy Dowd, &
Steven M. Tipton.
- 1996 B.A., University of California, Davis, *summa cum laude

RESEARCH & TEACHING INTERESTS

Religion & Globalization Theory Cultural Sociology Organizations	Human Rights Global Analysis Social Movements Data Manipulation & Processing
---	---

AWARDS, HONORS, & FELLOWSHIPS

- 2007 – 2008 Research Partner Fellowship, $20,000
Scholarly Inquiry & Research at Emory University.
- 2007 Graduate Fellowship, $15,750
Office of University-Community Partnerships at Emory University – declined.
- 2007 Woodruff Library Graduate Fellowship, $16,000
Woodruff Library at Emory University – declined.
- 2002 –2007 George W. Woodruff Fellowship for Graduate Study, $20,000
Department of Sociology, Emory University
- 1996 Undergraduate Research Fellow, $750
Institute of Governmental Affairs, UCD

PUBLICATIONS

2007. “Religious Organizations.” With John Boli. Pp. 205-233 in Globalization, Religion & Culture, edited by Peter Beyer & Lori Beaman. Leiden, Netherlands: Brill Academic Publishers.

Under Review – “We’ve Always had Human Rights”: Religious Movements & Discursive Change in the Global Human Rights Regime. Review of Religious Research.

Technical – “Survey of Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Analysis.” Commissioned by the American Academy of Religion. See www.aarweb.org/department/census/undergraduate/default.asp.

Technical (in progress) – “Survey of Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Analysis, Wave II.” Commissioned by the American Academy of Religion.

In progress – “The First Liberty and the Last Right? Religious Liberty INGOs in Secular World Culture.” An event history analysis comparing global religious liberty organizations to other human rights organizations.

In progress – “Religious Liberty at the Nexus of Human Rights and Religion.” An institutional history charting the development of global human rights and social justice movements to their sources in 18th and 19th century missionary and social gospel work.

In progress – “The International Human Rights Regime: Process, Sequence, and Change.” An event history analysis charting the trajectories of human rights advocacy utilizing organizational and documentary data.

In progress – “Procedure for Data Extraction from Union of International Associations Yearbook Plus CD-Rom, 2001-02.”

PROFESSIONAL MEETINGS, SYMPOSIA & COLLOQUIA

- 2007 “Discussion of Wave II Results for AAR Undergraduate Religious Studies Survey” (with Kyle Cole). American Academy of Religion annual meeting special invited session.
- 2007 “Religious Organizations.” Society for the Scientific Study of Religion annual meeting special session organized for authors of the forthcoming volume, Globalization, Religion & Culture, edited by Peter Beyer & Lori Beaman, Tampa Bay, FL.
- 2007 “Religious International Nongovernmental Organizations.” American Sociological Association annual meeting, New York, NY.
- 2007 Colloquium on Human Rights and Sociological Institutionalism, Harvard Law School.

- 2006 “We’ve Always Had Human Rights”: Religious Movements & Discursive Change in the Global Human Rights Regime.” Association for Sociology of Religion annual meeting, Montreal, Quebec.
- 2006 “Globalization Roundtables.” Discussant at Southeastern Undergraduate Sociology Symposium, Emory University.
- 2005 “Tips & Tricks for Organizing Your Data.” Department of Sociology, Emory University.
- 2005 “Organizing Human Rights: the Case of Religious Liberty.” American Sociological Association annual meeting, Philadelphia, PA.
- 2005 “Late to the Party: Religious Liberty Organizing.” Southern Sociological Society annual meeting, Charlotte, NC.
- 2005 “Organizing Human Rights: the Case of Religious Liberty.” Department of Sociology, Emory University.
- 2003 “Survey of Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Analysis.” American Academy of Religion Undergraduate Religion & Theology Programs Data Conference, Atlanta GA.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

- 2007 – current Research Consultant, American Academy of Religion, Atlanta. Survey instrument creation, data management, statistical analysis, & presentation on internal membership survey.
- 2007 – current Research Partner Fellow, Scholarly Inquiry & Research at Emory Program development & mentoring of undergraduate students in the SIRE Research Partner Program.
- 2006 – current Research Consultant, American Academy of Religion, Atlanta. Data management, presentation, & statistical analysis of Census of Religion & Theology Programs, Wave II data.
- 2004 Research Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta.
Conducted basic research on forms of global religious liberty.
- 2003 – 2004 Research Consultant, American Academy of Religion, Atlanta
Data management, presentation, & statistical analysis of Census of Religion & Theology Programs Wave I data.
- 2002 – 2003 Research Assistant (with John Boli)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Collected data on Top 20 sociology departments.
- 2001 – 2002 Research Associate, Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management, University of San Francisco.

Redesigned internet course syllabus & case study database/library using MS Access, ColdFusion, & HTML. Gathered interview data for process & outcome evaluation research for Food Bank philanthropy project. Generated client-requested datasets from California Nonprofit Database in SPSS, MS Access, & MS Excel.

1996 – 1996

Undergraduate Research Fellow (with John R. Hall)
Institute of Governmental Affairs, University of California, Davis.
Collected media archive on violent religious sects.

ADDITIONAL RESEARCH TRAINING

2006 “Sequence Analysis: An Introduction,” seminar by Ivano Bison at Emory University.

2004 “Qualitative Data Analysis Software,” workshop by Eben Weitzman, Emory University.

RELEVANT RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2001 System Manager II, Satmetrix Systems, Inc., Mountain View, CA
Designed & implemented complex on-line customer experience surveying & reporting systems using proprietary XML-based computer language & HTML, PERL, & SQL. Managed all technical & methodological areas for multiple accounts & served as principal client contact.

2001 System Manager I, Satmetrix Systems, Inc., Mountain View, CA
Learned & utilized complex proprietary computer language & system architecture in implementing customer experience surveying & reporting systems.

1999 Project Analyst, Digital Generation Systems, San Francisco
Managed Quarterly Customer Satisfaction Survey Program. Developed, administered, tabulated, & reported survey results. Advocated measures on how to best improve customer satisfaction through detailed reports & presentations to Executive Staff. Assisted in design & administration of marketing surveys.

TEACHING

2006 Instructor, Global Change
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta.

2005 Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Development of Sociological Theory, Sociology 457.

2004 Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta

Course: Global Change, Sociology 266.

- 2003 Teaching Assistant (with Frank Lechner)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Development of Sociological Theory, Sociology 457.
- 2003 Teaching Assistant (with John Boli)
Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta
Course: Freshman Seminar – Making Sense of Globalization, Sociology 190.

PEDAGOGICAL TRAINING

- 2004 Teaching Sociology, Sociology 767
Emory University, Department of Sociology, four-hour credit course.
- 2003 TATTO Training Course
The Graduate School of Arts & Sciences four-day intensive training course, Emory University.

INVITED LECTURES

- 2007 “Religious Organizations” in Global Change
- July 2005 “Religion – Ritual or Belief?” in Introduction to Sociology
- June 2005 “Religion – Ritual or Belief?” in Introduction to Sociology
- 2004 “The Protestant Ethic & the Spirit of Capitalism” in Development of Sociological Theory
- 2004 “Global Civil Society & Development” in World Inequality & Underdevelopment
- 2003 “The Protestant Ethic & the Spirit of Capitalism” in Development of Sociological Theory
- 2003 “Global Fundamentalism” in Making Sense of Globalization

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

- 2007 – current Graduate student representative
Faculty Meetings, Department of Sociology, Emory University
- 2006 – current Reviewer
Review of Religious Research
- 2003 – current Webmaster
Department of Sociology, Emory University

- 2006 Faculty Advisor, Co-organizer, & Discussant
Globalization Roundtables, Southeastern Undergraduate Sociology Symposium, Emory University. Faculty advisor to Wiatta Thomas, Barbara Altimus, Sheena Sood, Lindsay Weiss, Gan Su, & Melanie Davis.
- 2004 – 2006 Graduate student representative
Graduate Program Committee, Department of Sociology, Emory University
- 2003 – 2004 Co-coordinator
Graduate Student Mentor Program, Department of Sociology, Emory University
- 2003 – 2004 Mentor
Graduate Student Mentor Program, Department of Sociology, Emory University
- 2003 –2003 Committee Member
Graduate Recruitment Committee, Department of Sociology, Emory University

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Sociological Association
Association for the Sociology of Religion
Society for the Scientific Study of Religion
Religious Research Association
Southern Sociological Society

REFERENCES

Dr. Frank J. Lechner (Dissertation Chair)
Emory University
1555 Dickey Drive
Atlanta, GA 30322
404.727.7530
flechn@emory.edu

Dr. John Boli
Emory University
1555 Dickey Drive
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-7509
jboli@emory.edu

Dr. Steven M. Tipton
Emory University
1555 Dickey Drive
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-6320
stipton@emory.edu

Dr. Timothy J. Dowd
(Currently Erasmus Chair for Humanities for the Fall 2007 semester at Erasmus University in Rotterdam.)
Emory University
1555 Dickey Drive
Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-6259
tdowd@emory.edu